	Telecommunications, Inc.)

I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina ("Commission") upon the request of Comcast Telephony Communications of South Carolina, Inc. ("Comcast Telephony") through its attorney Robert D. Coble, Esquire of Nexsen Pruet, requesting that the Commission change the name from Comcast Telephony Communications of South Carolina, Inc. to Comcast Phone of South Carolina, Inc. ("Comcast Phone"). The request was by letter dated September 24, 2004, and received by the Commission on September 24, 2004.

Previously on June 3, 1998, by Commission Order No. 98-409, Comcast Telephony received a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity from the Commission to provide competitive local exchange telecommunications services, private line, and special access services within portions of South Carolina served by BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

1. The Commission has the statutory authority to approve the requested name change.

2. The Commission granted Comcast Telephony a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to operate in South Carolina by Commission Order No. 98-409.

3. Comcast Telephony has no customers in South Carolina.

4. It is in the best interest of the public and Comcast Telephony to approve the requested name change.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

The Commission approves the change of name of Comcast Telephony to Comcast Phone of South Carolina, Inc.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.
